

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 30, sec. 53. 1835, ch. 319, sec. 3.

83. When any person shall be convicted of any statutory felony or misdemeanor, for the false or fraudulent obtention or embezzlement, secreting or making way with goods, chattels, valuable effects, money or securities, the court before whom any such conviction shall be had, may award restitution to the real owner thereof; provided, however, that no bona fide holder thereof shall be obliged to surrender up the same.

Isaacs v. State, 23 Md. 410.

1868, ch. 280.

84. Every person who by any false pretence shall obtain from any club, association, society or company for improving the breed of cattle, horses, sheep, swine and other domestic animals, a certificate of registration of any animal in the herd register, or other register, of any such club, association, society or company, or a transfer of any such registration, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Female Sitters.

1886, ch. 171, sec. 1.

85. It shall be unlawful for any proprietor, lessee or manager of any variety entertainment or concert hall (whether an admittance fee is charged or not), to employ, engage or allow any female sitters (or by whatever other name they may be called) in or about said entertainment or concert hall, building, room or premises; and all females who are allowed in or about the said premises who shall drink, smoke or partake of any kind of eatables or refreshments at the expense of others, or solicit others to purchase such things as may be purchased there, upon which they shall receive or expect to receive a commission, or who may be paid a regular salary therefor, or who participate in any way in the profits thereof, shall be deemed sitters under this section.

Ibid sec. 2.

86. Any person convicted of a violation of the preceding section shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be confined in jail or the house of
